

Support to live your life

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) began rolling out across Western Australia from 1 July 2017. The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) will assume responsibility for the NDIS in WA from 1 July 2018. All eligible people will have access to the scheme by 2020.

Who can get NDIS support?

You can use the NDIS if you:

- have a disability that affects your everyday life
- are younger than 65 years old

What can the NDIS do for me?

You can get support to:

- care for yourself and your family
- do jobs around the house
- go to work and school
- go out and about.

You can get ongoing support even if things change

Talk to a Local Coordinator about what you might need and they will be there for you if things change.

Who are Local Coordinators?

Local Coordinators work for Disability Services. Local Coordinators will talk privately with you so you can get the support you need.
