Areas Covered:

- Mandurah; and
- Rockingham

Support Clusters:

2. Daily living support will help you to live on your own and be part of the community. It can also help you learn skills in personal care, communication, shopping, cooking and cleaning. This support can be used to get help with transport and teach family and carers how to support you.
4. Wellbeing support will help you to find a job or do community activities.
5. Having a break can help you to do things you enjoy and have a good relationship with your family and friends. You can get help to give your carer a break, go to activities or go to respite care in your own home or somewhere else.
6. Support Planning will help you if things in your life change. Support can be used when something happens that you did not know would happen, when there are many things to manage that you need help with and to plan during these times. Support can also be used by your main service provider to manage 3 or more of your services.

For the above cluster(s), Community First is able to offer

- Services to individuals with psycho-social disability
- Shared Management

Community First's service description:

Community First is a local provider who has successfully established itself as an NDIS provider in the trial site of Kwinana and Cockburn with over 100 clients. Community First has a reputation for delivering flexible services that exceeds expectations or demands to meet the individual needs of each client.

Our staff are qualified and experienced with people with disabilities and mental health issues. Our suite of activities provide clients with a variety of social experiences that foster the development of self-esteem and sense of contribution in the community.

Community First also supports individuals to seek meaningful volunteer work and work experience leading to employment opportunities. Staff at Community First utilise community links with organisations to holistically meet the clients' needs.

Client progress is testament to the commitment Community First has to its clients and the community.
