Support Clusters:

1. Accommodation is where you live and includes daily support needs.
2. Daily living support will help you to live on your own and be part of the community. It can also help you learn skills in personal care, communication, shopping, cooking and cleaning. This support can be used to get help with transport and teach family and carers how to support you.
4. Wellbeing support will help you to find a job or do community activities.
5. Having a break can help you to do things you enjoy and have a good relationship with your family and friends. You can get help to give your carer a break, go to activities or go to respite care in your own home or somewhere else.

For the above cluster(s), Diversity South is able to offer

- Services to individuals with psycho-social disability
- Shared Management

Diversity South's service description

Diversity South, creating fulfilling lives for people with disability, since the early 90's in the Peel region.

Diversity South Inc is a registered WA NDIS provider offering flexible, innovative and professional support to adults with intellectual, physical and neurological disability. All supports and services are based around the needs of individuals and their families.

The Diversity South Lifestyle Program offers shared living arrangements, giving each individual opportunity to live their own lives whilst being supported to develop skills in all areas of their lives, including social, emotional, physical and spiritual. Individuals are supported to participate in and become valued members of their local and wider community.

The Diversity South Community Program offers opportunity for individuals to interact in community based activities. Individuals are members of both social and recreational clubs and groups in their local and wider community. The Community program also offers shared management, family support and having a break both in and out of home.

Independence and active citizenship are both prized and promoted across all programs. We aim to provide a rich and diverse range of opportunities for community participation and an improved quality of life for the people we support.

A dedicated team of trained support workers, support and promote the dignity of the people we support to enhance their quality of life so that they can live an ordinary life in their community, enabling each person's independence to the best of their ability.
