Intelife's service description:

Our goal is to help you achieve your goals.

We want to help you achieve greater independence, to enjoy a better life.

To do this we:

- Are committed to working alongside you in your community.
- Seek your assistance to co-design an activities plan that is meaningful for you.
- Assist you to learn more about the world around you.
- Expand the skills you identify as being important or want to learn.
- Support your natural friendships with your peers and provide opportunities for you to meet new people.
- Match you with a support person that has similar interests, hobbies and common experience.
- Support you in transitioning during important life stages such as leaving school, moving homes, starting work, changing jobs etc.

We can support you with your plan for a brighter future and give you a hand to get there.
